

Mitchell Griffiths

Mitch has wide ranging experience across all types of corporate and personal insolvency.

Prior to establishing Rapsey Griffiths, Mitch spent time working with national insolvency firms in both Newcastle and Sydney gaining experience across a large range of industries including building and construction, manufacturing, mining, hospitality, tourism and retail.

Mitch's focus is to provide clear and concise commercial advice to solve the difficult situations that both directors and lenders can experience.

Mitch primarily services the SME market.

Qualifications

- Registered Liquidator
- Official Liquidator
- Bankruptcy Trustee
- Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting)
- Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants
- Diploma of Advanced Insolvency Law
- Graduate Certificate in Forensic Accounting

Specialties

- Corporate and personal insolvency
- Informal workouts
- Independent business reviews
- Liquidations
- Receiverships

Recent Engagements

- Liquidator of Central Coast based Transport Company.
- Voluntary Administrator and Liquidator of Central Coast based fabrication business.
- Liquidator of Central Coast based flooring installation company.
- Voluntary Administrator and Deed Administrator of mining services business based in the Hunter Valley. Turnover $7 million.
- Turnaround consulting to mining services business with turnover of $32 million.
- Liquidator of large hair product franchise. Four stores based in South-East Queensland.