

RICHARD COLLINS

Richard commenced practice on the Central Coast in 1984 specialising in auditing. He has developed a specialisation in the following professional services:

Audits

- (i) Companies;
- (ii) Not for profit entities;
- (iii) Government Funded entities;
- (iv) Trust Accounts;
- (v) Self Managed Superannuation Fund audits;

He also provides the following services:

- (i) Management accounting;
- (ii) Management consulting and
- (iii) Forensic accounting.

In the last six years he concentrated on providing auditing services for other professionals for the self-managed superannuation fund industry to ensure independence and providing assurance that no other services are provided in that sector.

The development of forensic accounting services for the legal profession and corporate entities is seen as an important and critical specialist field. Richard has been developing his practice in providing these specialised services.

Over the past six years Richard has been a regular presenter at a number of industry seminars and events.
